This is such a solid game! The different game modes, races and weapons add a lot of variety and is such a blast to play with a group of friends.

Fast paced, adrenaline inducing fun!. The appeal of Crashnauts is that it's simple enough for anyone to pick up and play, but deceptively complex for any players looking for that competitive multiplayer challenge. I understand this game is still in early access but it already has solid gameplay mechanics and fantastic level design. The hand-drawn visuals really give this game a unique look, and I love the cool options for the different races you can play as. This game is a fast paced 2D arena shooter, you can tell it was inspired by Quake 3 Arena. I'm also getting some TowerFall vibes.

Looks like both online and local multiplayer are working, which is fantastic. I appreciate having both options. There's a few things here and there that need polish but the core gameplay is solid and very fun to play right now. Definitely worth the price in my opinion. It feels like it was designed to be one of those games you and a bunch of friends play on the couch friday night.

Oh also, getting a headshot is S A T I S F Y I N G !. I've been waiting for Crashnauts for quite a while now, and it is finally here. I've been having an amazing time playing this game with some friends, and people online! I'm very suprised on how good the game looks, and even performs just for 10$! I would recommend this game any day to anyone that loves some actions, and looking for an easy game to pickup thats cheap too!. This game is amazing, i have met the devs at a convention and they were some of the nicest people ever. I played this game non-stop at all the conventions it was at so JUST BUY IT.. Form what I have played of Crashnauts so far, it's great. it all feels very responsive, with slick movement to boot. Although at this point, there aren't too many maps, for $10 it's an absolute blast online with a few friends.

This game is a great addition to the local multiplayer sit on the couch and spend hours screaming with your friends as you destroy eachother. I enjoy the likes of Towerfall and this holds up for quick and insane multiplayer (they don't have a single player mode yet so I can't compare that). I've booted this game up at work or at friend's houses where no one else has played it and within a couple matches everyone is super into it and having a blast.

The creators have a discord channel and are super responsive to the feedback and are constantly tweaking and finessing, even have played a few successful online rounds which wasn't available at the start.

Great game and only going to get better! I'm pumped to see where it goes from here!. Crashnauts is easy to jump into and a great play for couch parties. What starts as a quick "Ok, let's try to for a few minutes" stretches to an hour or more as you each try to take the lead the next match.

Online play is an option, but I haven't had a chance to try that part yet. It's well worth a purchase even if it were local only.. The whole core of the game is really good, the graphics are good,(too good for my pc) and I have heard a few of their plans for the game, and that made me excited.

Pros

- core game and mechanics (so far)
- Graphics are nice and cartoonist just as I like it.
- The amount of time and effort the developers are sacrificing to this game.
- The developers have a discord server and are listening to players feedback.

Cons

- A lot of major bugs are still to be tracked and smacked.
- The game doesn't have that many gamemodes and maps yet. (they're working on it though)
- There isn't any peer-to-peer connection option, so making a server of your own isn't always going to work. Either port-forwarding or use hamachi. If none of you/your friends can make a working server right off the bat.
- The game lack players, so getting a few friends to join, won't hurt.

I will definitely play this game more, but the server problem will hold me a bit back. I will give this game 7 out of 10 stars in its current state, but that will change though.. justt get it now you will fall in love its packed fun loads of game modes and fun its a soild game aas it is and if you talk to tthe creators about some of youre ideas thay might add them my friend kazoomer21 check out his youtube but he asked to add a mapp call courthard and boom its there so JUST GET IT ITS FUN FUN!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!! Had a blast with this, especially the scroll maps! hope they add workshop support

A few cons: limited number of maps. This game obviously has a lot of polish, with gameplay feeling smooth and overall balance great. The experience is only improved by the modes and character options and arenas to fight in. One of the best local multiplayer games I've played.

. This game is FUN! I can't describe it any other way. Although Steam says I don't have many hours, a lot of the time I have spent is offline at friends' houses as they demand that I bring Crashnauts down, and despite playing it locally with friends maybe every second weekend the game is not stale and is still our current top local multilplayer game.

After introducing the game to friends and explaining the controls, it took about 1 minute for everyone to get into it, and headshots and crashpod kills were everywhere. I can safely say that Crashnauts will be in regular rotation with my friends, second only to Smash Bros.

I want to also praise the developers. I was struggling to get 6 xbox 360 controllers to work due to the limitations of xinput, so I was in touch with the developer via the Crashnauts Discord. Within a week he had provided me with a beta that had the option of direct input which solved all my issues. I had some concern that this game was forgotten by the developers, but they are working feverishly on new contact.

Do yourself a favor and get this game now. It is an an amazing multiplayer game right now and will only be getting better. . This game is an absolute blast. I know the game is in early access but it's already a really solid game. I love the UI, super intuitive. The hand drawn art style is unique and intentional and I love it. Gives the game an otherworldly feel, and it works. The game mechanics are solid and well developed. Improvements will just be icing on the cake. The sniper is by far my favorite weapon, getting a headshot is soooo very satisfying. It rivals the satisfaction that came with a Halo 2/3 sniper headshot. Just so clean and epic sounding. The sounds and music in this game are absolutely epic.

I can't wait to see how the game improves, as it's already so so very worth the price tag. Will definitely be begging my friends to buy a copy, or gifting them a copy, as this game will be incredibly fun with a group.
